Trout Season Opens Saturday On County Lakes and Rivers

The trout season opens on the AuSable and Manistee rivers and on four trout lakes Saturday.

On the AuSable mainstream from Burton's to Wakeley Bridge, flies only are allowed and a slot limit protecting trout 12 to 16 inches is in effect. On the rest of the mainstream, any type of bait may be used and an 8-inch minimum for trout is in effect.

On the North Branch, a flies-only stretch extends from the Sheep ranch access to the mouth with an 8-inch limit on brook trout and a 10-inch limit on other trout.

On the South Branch, a flies-only no-kill section extends from Chase Bridge to the lower High Banks.

On the Manistee, fishermen are reminded they can not keep any of the planted grayling fish.

A 10-inch limit for trout is in effect for Bright, Glory, Kniff, and Shupac lakes. Horseshoe Lake has been taken off the designated list of trout lakes.

Milltown Celebrity Auction Attracts Bob Hope, Blanchard, And Ronna Romney Items

The Celebrity Auction to be held during the Grayling Milltown Festival Week has already received 85 items to be auctioned off. The auction is a fund-raising project by the 4-H Leaders Council and is to be held starting at noon on Saturday, July 30, at the Rialto Theatre.

Among the items already in are a Michigan book from Governor Blanchard, a book which is usually given to visiting heads of states, a lamp from Ronna Romney, Bill Schuette's tie, autographed pictures from Larry Holmes, Bob Hope, Ted Danson, and an autographed portfolio from Calvin Klein.

Men and Women Challenged To Beard Growing Contest

A beard growing contest open to both men and women will be a part of this year's Milltown Festival.

Registration will take place on April 30, at Glen's Market from 11 - 4. Entrants must be clean shaven at time of registration.

To compete in final judging on July 30, all entrants must wear a 1988 Milltown Festival Button.

Further details available upon registration. Prizes will be awarded. The Milltown Committee says there will be no discrimination involved with the contest so any interested man or woman may enter.

2 Lovells Groups Sponsor Meet Your Candidate Night

On Tuesday, May 3, the Lovells Hook and Trigger Club and the Lovells Home Extension will co-sponsor a "Meet Your Candidate" session at 7:00 p.m. in the Lovells Township Hall. Anyone wishing to be on the agenda should call 348-9877 by April 30.

Following this session, Wendell Hoover will be in charge of the program.

The meeting will be open to the public.

Grayling High School Hosts Blood Bank May 5

On May 4 a Blood Bank will be at the Grayling High School from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. If you miss the GHS Blood Bank, there will be another one on May 5 in Frederic from 4-8 p.m.

For the past thirteen years, Crawford County has attained and even exceeded their goal in pints of blood. This year the county is falling short, said GHS Blood Bank Student Coordinator Lori Dean.

All blood types are needed, but there is a shortage of B-, O-, and O+, so please give, Dean said.

GHS Spring Musical 'Snoopy!!!' To Be Performed Friday and Saturday

The Grayling High School Spring Musical Production "Snoopy!!!" will open for two shows at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, April 29, and on Saturday, April 30.

Everyone has seen the Peanuts Gang on television and in the comic strips, and this is a rare opportunity to see Snoopy, Charlie Brown, Sally Brown, Linus, Lucy, Peppermint Patty, and even Woodstock portrayed on the stage of the Joseph Stripe Auditorium. The performance of "Snoopy!!!" is under the direction of Howard Taylor.

Tickets can be purchased for $3.00 at Mac's Drug Store, or at the door before each performance.

10 to 40 Years Given To Grayling Woman For Kidnapping

Stephanie Renee Wakeley, 19, of Grayling, was sentenced to 10 to 40 years in prison for kidnapping Renee Drouillard.

Larry Drouillard, Renee Drouillard's husband, and Larry Farley, are also charged with kidnapping and attempted murder of Renee Drouillard.

The three were arrested by Grayling City Police after a report that Renee Drouillard was beaten and tied to a tree overnight in 20-degree-below temperatures in January, 1988.

Renee Drouillard was wearing only light clothing including tennis shoes with no socks, a thin jacket, and no gloves. She suffered severe frostbite to her hands and feet.

Police said the incident began about 10 p.m. Jan. 5th at an apartment in Grayling when Renee Drouillard reportedly got into an argument with Wakeley and the two other suspects. They allegedly beat and kicked her, forced her into a car, and took her to a remote spot off N. Down River Rd. They chained her to a tree and returned the next morning to find her huddled along the road. They tried to treat her frostbite, police said, until Jan. 8th when they called an ambulance.

Drouillard and Farley are scheduled for trial on May 10 in Otsego County.

Wakeley was sentenced April 18 in 46th Circuit Court in Grayling and received credit for 98 days already served.

Fire Danger Increases As Woods Dry Out

No news usually is good news from the DNR firefighting unit at Grayling.

Despite an absent of heavy spring rains (as of Monday, April 25) no wild fires were started last week.

DNR firefighter Frank Barber said on Monday that only 2 fires burning a total of less than an acre have been reported so far this year.

Last year by this date 7 fires had burned 6.8 acres, said Barber.

This year's fire season is off to a slow start despite lower rainfall than normal in April. The day, windy weather has already created moderate to dangerous fire index ratings.

Fire conditions are expected to increase as the woods continue to dry out. The peak fire danger usually arrives the 2nd week in May for Crawford County.

By the end of May, most of the woods and fields have "greened up" and the new growth helps reduce fire danger.

Barber said the Grayling DNR unit had one of the best records in the state for controlling wild fires last year. They put out 61 fires, keeping the total acres burned down to 164 acres. In Michigan last year wild fires burned more than 23,000 acres.

The DNR unit also had 15 runs they were called off because a local fire department had already controlled the blaze. The 76 runs for 1987 was about the average number, Barber said, with some years going as high as 80 to 90 runs.

Last year 9 of the fires here were caused by debris burning — the number one cause of wild fires in the state. The number of fires in Crawford County caused by smoking or children were higher last year than normal.

No major fires burning hundreds of acres occurred last year in Crawford County, but the area's large tracts of pine forests make it one of the top trouble spots in the state.

Burning permits from the DNR (call 348-6371) are required for all outside fires.

15th BIRTHDAY — Marge Olver, 1987 Retired Senior Volunteer Program Queen, leads a balloon launch celebrating the Grayling RSVP's 15th year. The Crawford County program has 214 volunteers working at 64 places. The balloon launch took place on Wednesday, April 20, in addition to a party for RSVP volunteers.

Chamber, Guard Continue Work Toward Improving Community Relations

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce continued its leadership role toward improving military-community relations with a special board meeting with Michigan Adjutant General Vernon Andrews at the Camp Grayling Officer's Club Saturday, April 23.

After the 2½-hour meeting, some board members said the discussion session was extremely worthwhile and they felt many of the chamber's recommendations (published in the April 21st Avalanche) will be acted upon.

Chamber President Bill Carey opened the special meeting Saturday by stating the chamber is concerned about long-term relationships with the National Guard at Camp Grayling.

Major General Andrews said that every effort would be made to continue being good neighbors with the community and encouraged an open dialogue with the group attending the meeting.

In response to a suggestion that the guard take quick action regarding complaints, Andrews said that Major Jerry Foehl had been placed on full time duty as the public affairs officer at the camp. He and Lt. Col. Pat Nunn will "field" complaints and follow them through until appropriate action has been taken on them.

Andrews told the group that every helicopter will have an identification number painted on the underbelly (bottom) of the craft. He noted that if it is from the Michigan Guard the number will have a prefix "M", if from Ohio, "O" and from Indiana, "I".

Andrews was accompanied by a number of staff officers and in some cases he referred questions to them. Nunn told the board that he had received about 175 complaint calls last summer and had followed them to either a conclusion, or in some few cases, a "dead end" where insufficient information was available.

MILITARY POLICE

Concerning the behavior of individual guard persons, the chamber board was told that military police will be more in evidence in Grayling this summer and special plans are being laid for certain locations.

Chamber board members pointed out that feedback to the individuals that complain is important and the suggestion was accepted by Andrews as a worthwhile addition to the responsibility of the investigative team.

Andrews noted that the adjutant generals of Ohio and Indiana had intended to attend the session but at the last minute were called away. He said that they had either written or called him to insure the board that they would give their full cooperation. In that vein, he responded to a request by the business community to work toward paying the troops at least partially while they are in the area. He said that they will be receiving a partial pay just prior to being returned from the field for Diamond Jubilee activities this June and then be paid in full before leaving for home at the end of annual training. He indicated that he would pass that and other suggestions to the officials in Ohio and Indiana.

One of the ideas passed along to Andrews was that the guard employ a full-time civilian, public relations person. Lt. Col. Brian Downey, guard public affairs officer, replied that an attempt had been made to employ such a person but the freeze on new employees in state government made it impossible. He noted that the only way a full-time person could be made available was if he were in the guard. Foehl, who is from Kalkaska, is the guard appointed to the position, he said.

NEW MAPS

It was noted that new maps of the area have now been printed with accurate updated information on flight paths, ranges, Kirtland's warbler areas and many places to avoid for special reasons. Andrews said these maps have been made available to the various units and will be valuable in avoiding incidents.

In response to a suggestion to focus more attention to individual guard persons who live in the community, Foehl will research information on the township residence of each local guard along with other pertinent material and make it available to the media.

The chamber also suggested an updated list should be used to invite individuals to the VIP meetings sponsored by the guard. Andrews noted that Col. Richard Schmidt and

Need to Protect Area Domestic Violence Victims Creates Shelter Here

(Editor's note: This is the first of two articles about the River House Shelter and Domestic Crisis Services. An article next week will look at the domestic crime "battering".)

Domestic Violence is defined as "A violent attack or fear of a violent attack on a victim, in which the victim is a person with whom the assailant has cohabited, and in which the victim and assailant are or were involved in a consenting sexual relationship."

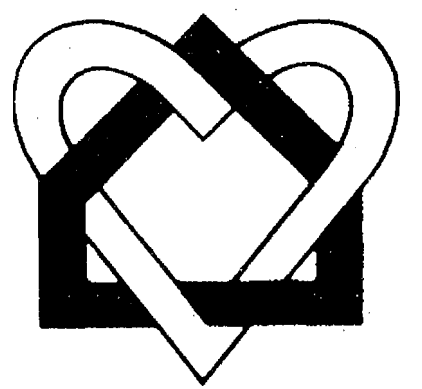

Domestic Violence is often referred to as "Battering" and is a crime. Each crime produces victims: In the case of Domestic Violence, it is usually the female and her children who are "robbed" of basic human rights. Nationwide, 95% of all abusers are male.

A study done by the Department of Social Services, found that there was a need for a domestic violence shelter to serve the 4-county area of Crawford, Ogemaw, Oscoda, and Roscommon counties. Thus, River House Shelter and Domestic Crisis Services began in October, 1986 with a 24-hour crisis line funded by the State of Michigan Domestic Violence and Treatment Board. In March, 1987, the shelter facility was ready to house up to 16 women and their children. Male victims are provided with housing and the same services, but are not housed at the shelter due to the lack of adequate space to ensure privacy.

The River House Shelter philosophy and mission statement is rooted in the belief that all victims are entitled to a safe environment, free from violence, and fear of violence. By providing a safe environment removed from the cycle of battering, a victim can make choices and take a course of action to establish a life that continues to be free from violence and the fear of violence. The philosophy and mission statement is carried out by a process that includes the concept of "Empowerment": the staff and volunteers provide assistance and support for the women as they take the necessary steps toward self-determination.

RELIES ON VOLUNTEERS

From its beginning, River House Shelter has relied on volunteers and donations from concerned community members. Service agencies, community organizations, individuals, churches, and Mercy Hospital have provided donations (clothing, food, toys, time, and money, etc.). Without these contributions, River House would not have the resources to meet client needs. State and Federal funds would not be made available to a program unable to provide matching funds, time and donations from the communities served.

In the past year River House Shelter volunteers have given over 4300 hours.

Freedom From Smoking Clinic Offered at Mercy Hospital

For people who benefit from group support in their efforts to quit smoking, Mercy Hospital, Grayling, is sponsoring a FREEDOM FROM SMOKING clinic program designed to help smokers kick their habit permanently. The seven-session clinic will begin Tuesday, May 3, and finish on Tuesday, June 14, with a special celebration. Sessions will be held at 7:00 p.m. in the Board Room at Mercy Hospital.

"This is a brand new clinic program," says Leah

Alexander, clinic instructor, "Which the American Lung Association has spent five years developing and testing across the country."

The clinic, she says, emphasizes "unlearning a habit and does not involve scare tactics. "We try to make quitting a less stressful experience and help smokers figure out better ways to cope with situations that ordinarily trigger their lightingup," says Alexander. Small Group exchanges are a vital part of the program.

"In this approach we help smokers develop an individual plan of action to quit, introduce them to relaxation techniques, identify their triggers, encourage exercise, and help devise ways to avoid weight gain," she says. "By the third session, we expect smokers to be off cigarettes. Then we help them launch and practice their new lifestyle as a nonsmoker."

An orientation session—to introduce smokers to the program, will be held at 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, May 3, at Mercy Hospital.

Fee for the program is $50. Enrollment is limited; advance registration is required. For more information call Mercy Hospital at 348-5461 for Donna Plfum, ext 193, or Leah Alexander, ext.154.

'Gottawanna' Play 10 Hours At Viking Band-A-Thon

"Gottawanna! Gottawanna!" That's the chant of the Grayling Viking Band members who will play in the first annual Grayling Viking Bands Band-a-Thon this Saturday, April 30th, from 8:30 in the morning to 6:30 in the evening. This event with an western theme is being sponsored by the Grayling Viking Band Boosters with Jane Larson and Brenda Ormsbee as chairpersons for the event.

One hundred and eighteen High School and Middle students will play ten hours of non-stop music in the Middle School Cafeteria. The money raised will be used for Band support like a Flag Advisor, Awards, major purchases, the Masters Workshop in June, Flag Camp and Band Camp. The Band members are out getting pledges from people for each hour the band plays. The pledges will be collected next week after the Band-a-Thon.

The Fifth and Sixth grade band students will help with pledges as well as be runners and helpers for the players. They will help band members with food, ice and water or any other need the members have. Each player will get a five-minute break per hour with fifteen minute shifts for lunch and dinner. The breaks and meals are done in small groups so the band is not lacking in any instrument area to effect the music.

A list of music with seventy titles will be posted for people to put in requests to hear when they come to listen. Graduates and community members with instruments are welcome to come and play with the bands. Guest conductors will appear throughout the day. If you would like to add your name to the list contact Janet Dice or any Band Booster member. Guest conductors already include Mike Branch, Janet Dice, Peggy Emerick, Cindy Green, Dave and Patty Hawkins, Wendall Hoover, and Mike Shearer.

The Gottawanna attitude is being backed by many in the community with donations of food for the students and prizes for the pledges the students bring in. Anyone who would like to help in these areas can call Larson and Ormsbee.

Two Youth Summer Work Projects Slated

Applications for these programs may be picked up at the GHS high school counseling office or the Northeast Michigan Consortium Office.

March of Dimes Walk Set for May 7th Here

It's the biggest "athon" of all, and it's happening on Saturday, May 7, in Crawford County. It's the annual March of Dimes WalkAmerica, a fund-raising event in which more than a million Americans will put on their walking shoes to raise money to fight birth defects.

This year citizens of Grayling can join the nation in WalkAmerica by turning out at the Grayling Health Care Center at 10 a.m. to make the annual trek. Registration is from 9 a.m. -

10 a.m. The City of Grayling and Mayor Robert Golnick has proclaimed May 7th as "Walk America Day."

Birth defects are this country's number one child health problem, striking 250,000 babies every year. Money collected from Walk pledges will assist the March of Dimes programs of research, medical services, and education. All donations to the March of Dimes are tax deductible.

Sponsor sheets are available at the Grayling Health Care Center or the Grayling Pizza Hut.

Prom, Graduation Film Featured At Substance Abuse Meeting

The Bishop's Task Force on alcohol and other substance abuse will be having its next community meeting May 5th at 7:30 in the Mercy Hospital board room.

Featured will be the film: Friday Night Special/ "Project Prom Graduation 1985". This is a 45-minute documentary produced in Detroit on teen drinking and driving. The setting is prom and graduation season in 1985. There are interviews of a teen victim, ambulance attendant, police officers, and school friends.

Everyone is invited, and especially all high school students and their parents are urged to attend this informative and thought-provoking film.

This film series is part of an ongoing program to provide information to the community on alcohol and substance abuse.

Chamber, Guard Continue Work

Merry Meredith are responsible for the list and should be advised if there are names to be added or removed.

PUBLIC SERVICE PROJECTS

Another suggestion that was made to enhance the guard's position as a good neighbor was to provide more publicity on the public service they render. Brig. Gen. Jerome Mathieu, assistant adjutant general, indicated that he would provide a listing of the guard projects for the past few years and also those being considered as a part of the Camp Grayling Diamond Jubilee program.

Andrews said new runway construction at the Grayling Airport would start as soon as the weather is favorable. The work will begin with the old surface being crushed and packed into the base and then a new surface would be built.

Andrews also made an appeal for support of the proposed multi-purpose range complex (MPRC) which would take the place of the present multiple ranges north of North Down River Road. He noted that the firing point will be much further away from the main road and behind a range of hills which will further reduce noise. He said that the MPRC computer system will allow for shells that take less powder and will have no explosion on impact, thus further reducing noise.

Need to Protect Creates Shelter

Volunteers are vital in helping with projects done in the home (crisis line back-up, typing, art work, collating, etc.), or working with fund raising, being a special friend, structuring a children's support group meeting, or one of many other jobs that need to be done. We can always put a volunteer to work. We can create a "niche" for anyone that becomes a volunteer.

River House Shelter provides a support group for residential and non-residential clients in two locations on the following days and at the following times: Grayling, 6:00-8:00 p.m., Wednesday evenings, and West Branch, 9:30-11:30 a.m., Tuesday mornings.

The children's support groups are also conducted at the same times to assist children with feeling identification, to provide a safe recreation time, and to allow the women to participate in the support group.

The River House staff and volunteers also provide advocacy for doctor's and legal aid appointments, court appearances, etc.

240 CASES

River House just opened its 240th case. There are many individuals who have called for information, referred a friend or family member, or have called as a victim just to talk. As more individuals are made aware of services, more referrals, crisis calls, and victims and families are sheltered and provided services needed to begin a life without violence.

If you know of anyone who might be interested in the services of River House Shelter, or if you would like more information, please contact the Shelter at 517-348-3169. Collect calls are also accepted on the crisis line.

Eye Care News

BY: RICHARD FERRIGAN
CERTIFIED OPTICIAN
IMPACT-RESISTANT LENS

QUESTION: I have to get new glasses and a friend suggested getting impact-resistant lens. Does that mean that they will never break?

ANSWER: Every eyeglass and sunglass approved by the Food and Drug Administration must be impact-resistant. It must be able to withstand the impact of a 5/8" steel ball dropped from a height of 50 inches. But if you wear impact-resistant eyeglasses or sunglasses that doesn't mean they're shatter-proof or break-proof. You may have greater protection now than you had before the FDA regulation went into effect. But you still have to protect your eyes and your glasses from accidents. Dropping them can sometimes loosen the lens, and scratching them can weaken them, too.

Opinions

Northern Views

By Jon Thompson

It's surprising how many people in Crawford County are one.

Some folks you would simply never suspect of being one. Then, all of a sudden, they slip during a conversation and you find out — they're a Detroit Tiger fan.

RUTH FUNCK, of Grayling, called the Avalanche last week and I found out right away she was a serious Tiger fan.

She wanted to find out what she and other Tiger fans could do to have the PASS television channel (Pro Am Sports System) added to the cable channels here currently offered by Centel Cable TV of Michigan.

Ruth, a Tiger fan for 50 years, says PASS broadcasts about 80 Tiger games in addition to the 50 or so games broadcast on the Cadillac station.

Adding PASS to our cable system, however, can be as tricky as figuring out what Sparky's line-up will be tomorrow.

Carol Stevens, Director of Marketing for Centel, said the Grayling-area system is at its current capacity carrying 12 channels.

Centel could drop a channel in order to add PASS but Stevens said the company doesn't like to do that. No matter which channel they drop, there will be some loyal viewers upset.

A better way for the company in the long run, to add a channel is to upgrade the system to handle more channels, she said.

Centel does not have any funds in the 1988 budget for re-building the Grayling system and Stevens said viewers in other Centel systems are asking for the PASS channel.

If Grayling area viewers do want PASS, she suggested sending petitions and letters so Centel could gauge how much of a demand is here. A significant response could speed up plans to upgrade the Grayling system or prompt some other move to add PASS.

Ruth Funck has offered to co-ordinate a petition campaign to tell Centel that viewers want the PASS channel. She thought a campaign like this might be good for the area — to give people a short break from the more serious issues.

The petition goal is 500 signatures by the 4th of July and the petitions simply read:

We would like to see the PASS channel added to the Centel Cable TV channels offered in the Grayling area.

Petitions may be obtained from Ruth Funck, 348-9324, or picked up from the Avalanche.

How many Tiger fans are there in the county? They'll have a chance to show Centel by signing this simple petition. Just add your John Hancock, your John Henry, or your Willie (make that Guillermo) and you can start the ball rolling.

Letters to the Editor

Chamber Recommendations Can Help Resolve Issue

Can you handle one more letter regarding Mike Delp and the Military situation?

I read Mr. Delp's contributions and didn't care for them at all. But, someone famous once said, "I may not agree with what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it." That nullifies the entire question. As Mr. R.J. Ruddy pointed out, you cannot have freedom without the forces to defend that freedom.

I do not like Northern Michigan. I am a victim of job transfer and would not have chosen this area on my own. Never-the-less, I enjoy my job and make the best of my surroundings. However, I will not remain when my employment is finished and I certainly wouldn't retire in this area. The military has nothing to do with my opinion. They were here when I arrived and will, no doubt, be here long after I leave. They are a portion of the forces who defend my country, and although I do not like Northern Michigan;

I sure do like this country. I would like to address Mr. Kenneth Erb. If you do not enjoy living in Lovells, the Good Lord made thousands of beautiful places in the United States. Why reside in an area where you are so unhappy? Personally, I wouldn't want the quiet of medieval catapults or cross-bows...not if the other guys had tanks, jets, and helicopters.

And, Susan Boehner, I would not compare Mr. Delp to Voltaire or Swift. His pieces were not the satire of masters, they were a sad attempt at sensational journalism. It worked to the point of angering many good citizens both civilian and military. Hurray! to Mrs. Schmooch for her wonderful letter.

My point is: living in any small town is difficult. Which is an understatement. People have too much time and opportunity to mind their neighbor's business. Conflicts, large and small, arise. The issue between the civilians and Camp Grayling military CAN be resolved by the Chamber of Commerce recommendations printed (in the Avalanche) 4-14-88 if co-operation is expended and applied from both sides.

As I've said, Northern Michigan may not be my favorite place, but; seeing I live here I plan to join the 75th Anniversary Celebration of Camp Grayling this summer and sincerely hope to meet some of the conscientious people who expressed their opinions so eloquently in this editorial space.

National Guard is Asset To Grayling Community

To the Editor:

Just recently I was once again made acutely aware of Mr. Dan L. Alstott and the AuSable Manistee Action Council's personal vendetta with our National Guard. A great many of the charges made against our National Guard are so distorted or unfounded, that they no longer hold validity. They just cause undue confusion and concern for our visitors and new arrivals to this community.

Problems do exist, and I don't want to give the impression it's all 20" Browns and Kirtland Warblers. A case in point could well be Guthrie Lake, which was developed next to an existing and active artillery and bombing range. Their battle is not with the National Guard, but with the silver tongued realtors who may have led them to believe that the loudest noise they would ever hear would be the chirping of a warbler.

I moved to this community in 1953 and it took no stretch of the imagination to realize that the National Guard was a considerable asset, not only for the revenue generated, but also for the responsible citizens employed and residing in this area. Like the rest of Grayling, I also hear the tank and artillery fire, helicopters and jets flying overhead, armor, and troops on the move.

This activity has never been a big problem with me, considering the advantage and importance of a well trained National Guard. It's a very comforting feeling knowing that it is our artillery I'm hearing and seeing, and our equipment displaying the white star and not the red star and sickle.

Compromise Can Help Save Treasured AuSable River Area

RE: Reply to Keith Whaley (March 3, 1988)

Dear Editor:

I am pleased to reply to Mr. Whaley's attack on my recent letter to the Grayling Avalanche. Mr. Whaley's defense of the National Guard's presence in Grayling is unrealistic. If there is another world war, it is likely to destroy the world as we know it. Therefore, Mr. Whaley, even our "first" string - the regular army - has little place in a nuclear war.

I have been seeking a compromise with the Guard for years. In the 70's, I asked federal noise pollution testing of the Guard camp and was told that the Guard was subject to Federal noise pollution standards. Regardless, the base commander sleeps and the noise continues. All we get for our complaints is a visit to the range during nighttime firing and a few well-intentioned lectures. The number of tanks firing increases annually, and the main concern is for each tank to fire its quota of rounds! Why not let Indiana ruin Brown County or let the Guard fire its tanks outside the Guard's office in Lansing. Mr. Whaley, would the people of Indiana and Ohio tolerate what the Guard is asking Grayling people to accept in the name of the National Defense?

I am not against training the National Guard, but I know there are alternatives to all night tank and artillery firing. Laser technology is supplied to our troops in Europe, but the Guard withholds simulated training technology from Grayling. Why? Until recently, no group has complained in an organized fashion and the Guard never felt the need to answer to the people.

I suggest, Mr. Whaley, that you ask the local commander about alternatives to live ammunition and cannon firings and why there hasn't been a special effort to bring modern training techniques to Grayling. Why must the loud and out-moded weaponry used by the Guard continue to rip apart our forests, destroy wildlife and discourage tourism?

I do not ignore the reality of war. I only realize that our greatest fear comes from within — from the homeless, the hungry and the needy of our society. I cannot justify wasteful spending by the military, when we have much greater domestic needs.

Yes, Mr. Whaley, let's compromise. Ask the military to bring in modern technology, eliminate its earth scarring training methods, eliminate the intolerable noise, train during daytime hours or in simulated facilities and preserve our environment. The Guard, to protect its tarnished image, has used its ultimate weapon — the threat of jobs. Yet, no where has the Guard admitted or even offered alternatives. Alternatives exist and we must force the Guard to use them in Grayling. It is time to take affirmative action and save what remains of your local treasure — the beautiful AuSable River basin.

P.S. All of your readers should have been offended by the recent letter from Major General Ronald McDonald (retired). "MacCarthyism" died in the 50's. The General's description of dissent and freedom of speech as "communist-type action" lead by "rabble rousers" who are making "senseless claims" ...and who appear to be "Communist incited" is an insult to the intelligence of your readers and an embarrassment to the National Guard. The General's comments, disguised as patriotism, are another example of the double-talk of trying to defend an indefensible position.

Notes from the Woods

By Nancy Lemmen

Of my 25 cousins, Aunt Marie's daughter Dolores was my favorite. Three years my senior, she lived with her parents, four brothers and two sisters on a farm in northern Wisconsin. Each summer, on our annual sojourn to grandma and grandpa's, I sought her out; and each summer she happily and patiently allowed me to tag along with her to work and play.

She taught me how to climb the apple tree in grandma's side yard and she showed me where to find choke cherries on the back forty. She got me into pick-up softball games with the boys and she let me help her with the farm chores. Once, when I followed her along on a babysitting job, she introduced me to the pleasures of drinking Mountain Dew pop. She had the sophistication of an older girl and the wholesomeness of a country girl. She was my idol.

After high school graduation, she went off to the university to study physical education, which she then taught in England and Alaska. The last time I saw her, she had just built a log cabin with another young woman. She was strong, independent, adventurous. Her aunts and uncles praised her; her siblings and cousins admired her.

One day, the summer after her death, I admired a work of art hanging in grandma's house.

Who made that? I asked.

Dolores, replied Aunt Dorothy.

Wow, Dolores could do a lot of things, I said.

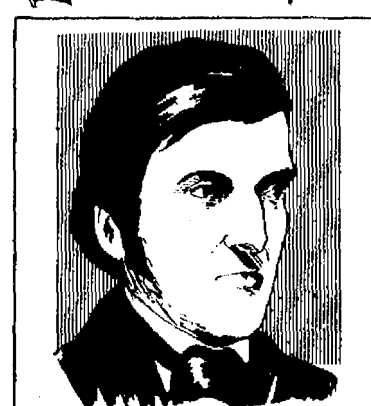

Dolores could do anything, said Aunt Dorothy. Well, maybe not anything, but who knows? Her life ended probably 30 or 40 or even 50 years earlier than it should have. Maybe she could have done anything. Or at least a lot of things.

But Dolores died at age 30 one summer night in 1977 on an Alaskan highway. At least her brain died. Her body, with the assistance of modern technology, lived on. Her father, my uncle, flew from Wisconsin to Alaska to give the doctors permission to remove the life support systems so the rest of her body could die. She was kind and smart and brave and many more good things. But suddenly she was dead.

Her death was not unique. It has happened to thousands and thousands of other people. Perhaps you have your own version of this story. She was killed by a drunken driver.

It's been 11 years since she died, but I often think about her. And I think about the man who killed her. I carry the memory of her life with me, but he carries the weight of her death with him.

Plan for Trash Hits Home

by Richard Millman

IT'S CLEARLY not glamorous, but garbage most likely will be a hot topic in Michigan government and politics one of these days.

The Blanchard Administration has unveiled a plan which would drastically change the way most Michigan homeowners handle one of the most mundane of regular chores — that is, how they take out the garbage.

The problem, according to David Dempsey, Gov. Blanchard's expert on such matters, is that Michigan "is on the brink of a solid waste crisis." He's probably right.

The solution is another matter, and a Blanchard trash-handling proposal has been presented as openers.

THIS BECOMES pretty basic politics, and it won't be popular.

For example, the Blanchard plan calls for a deposit on glass and plastic containers for all beverages, similar to the beer and pop container law Michigan now has. Apparently that would include milk, juice, wine, whiskey, and anything else consumable.

The idea, of course, is that if you have a dime or so invested in the container, you won't throw it in the trash but take it back to retrieve the deposit. It seems to work for beer and pop, and probably would for other beverages, too.

There would be more home burning of leaves, grass clippings, etc., too, under the Blanchard ideas, rather than just hauling them off to the dump. And recyclable items would have to be sorted out and picked up separately.

MORE BURNING and less burying of refuse is at the core of the program; this, of course, would require more places to burn trash, and thus more smoke in the air and more ash to get rid of, too. There are two more problems.

Most of the incinerators would be the province of local government, not the state, just as landfills now are. Where local governments would get the money to finance them is something else that will be debated loud and long.

The Blanchard program has a target date of 2005 to reach its goals; by then, only 10 to 20 percent of Michigan's waste would go to landfills. The rest would be burned, recycled, composted, reused, or eliminated beforehand.

ALL IN ALL, the governor's team has unveiled a vast program. Obviously it can't be digested in a single sitting, nor will it be considered and adopted on short notice. Likely it will take many months of consideration and study before government action is taken.

The garbage problem won't go away in a hurry, either. And as our society goes more and more toward the easy way in consumption, the problem grows.

A Look At Our Past

23 Years Ago
April 29, 1965

Brad Williams, 12, of Grayling did what many an oldtime trout fisherman would like to have done this past opening weekend. Brad landed an 18 inch, three pound brown trout at quarter to seven on opening morning from the East Branch of the AuSable. Not content, he went back to the stream Sunday morning and brought to creel a 26 inch rainbow.

Miss Cathy Stripe and roommate Miss Tsuneko Iwase of Tokyo, Japan, arrived home from WMU, Kalamazoo, and spent Easter vacation with her parents, the Joseph Stripes.

Mrs. Glen Fenton returned home Easter from a trip to Dallas, Tex., with her daughters, Peggy, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holtcamp and children of Manistee. Peggy had been transferred from Chicago to Texas in her work with the airline. They stopped in Kansas and visited Mrs. Fenton's brother, Clarence Ratliff, and sister, Mrs. Archie Hartzell, also her niece and husband, the William Malls.

The Ron Christensons of Grayling have a daughter, Christine Ann, born April 17th. Her grandparents are the Ivan Hamblins of Maple Forest.

Norman Glen is the son born April 17th to the Norman Bancrofts. The Pat Walmsleys and Mrs. Doris Bancroft of Grayling are grandparents.

Mrs. Earl Longworth attended the first communion of her daughter Sheri at St. Colletta School in Jefferson, Wis., Saturday and Sunday. Weekend guests at the Longworth home were the Jack Luxtons and Howard Meyerses of Saginaw.

On Friday after school Linda Hummel, Debbie Post, Helen Babbitt and Pam Spaulding rode bicycles from Frederic to Hummels where they spent the night. The next morning they rode bicycles from Hummels, 12 miles to Spauldings at Lovells where they took a canoe ride down the river. Mrs. Spaulding brought the girls to their respective homes on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bovee, Billie and Dena visited his mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman, Sr. at Livonia Wednesday and Thursday. All attended "Barefoot in the Park" at the Fisher Theater Wednesday evening.

James Tinker caught a 21 inch rainbow trout on the main stream of the AuSable river the first day of the season.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl E. Taylor (Virginia Hanson) of New York City are the proud parents of a daughter born Friday, April 24th. Dr. Taylor is associated with the Book Bank of America. T.W. Hanson is the happy grand dad.

Ted Creque, Bill Benincase, Bob and Rex Parcel and Arnold Gallagher of Flint spent the weekend at the Creque cabin on Lake Margrethe. They were here for the opening of trout fishing but had poor luck.

Larry McNamara proved himself quite a fisherman Tuesday evening when he caught two rainbow trout 9 and 7 inches long, and one chub 9 inches.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Larson on Tuesday, April 28th, at Mercy Hospital. He weighed 8½ lbs. and will be known as Gerald LeRoy. He has the distinction of being the 16,000 patient at the hospital.

Eighty-five degrees is high for this neck o' the woods at this time of year, but that is what it was Monday night for the all-high for the week. Yesterday afternoon and last night there was a soaking rain and with it large hailstones fell. It was exceedingly dry in this section and the rain was very welcome.

On Saturday, April 18th, at 8 p.m., Miss Doris Harmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Harmer, and Jack Bigham, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bigham, were united in marriage in Frederic.

"Riverdale" at Twin

Bridges was occupied over the weekend by the Howard McCanns of Detroit and their guests the Ken Cavanaughs, James McCann and Howard J. McCann.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Heath of Midland are receiving the felicitations of their friends on the birth of a son William James, at Grayling Mercy Hospital on Monday, April 27th.

Mrs. Robert Cargill, who visited her sister Miss Mabel Brasie for a couple of weeks, returned to her home in Marlette Friday.

Twins were born to Otis Weaver and wife of Frederic, who moved down from the Indian camp last week.

Thomas Washington, who for a few summers past has been the chef at the Hanson Dining room at Lake Margrethe, arrived Monday afternoon to resume his duties for the season. Mrs. Washington will come in about two weeks. During the past winter they have been employed by Mr. and Mrs. T.W. Hanson in New York City. "Tom and Nellie" are past masters in the art of providing and serving elegant eats and their presence here again this season promises delight for the inner man.

Earl J. Hewitt came home from Great Lakes Training station Tuesday afternoon with an honorable discharge from service.

The interior of Mercy Hospital has been nicely repainted and re-decorated and presents a very pleasing appearance. All the work has been done by Waldemar Jensen and his crew of men.

Sgt. Robert T. Roblin arrived home last Monday from Camp Custer accompanied by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Roblin, who had gone to Custer to visit him when he was transferred there a couple of weeks ago.

Thayer Announces Candidacy For Road Commission Term

Arthur R. Thayer, of Grayling, has filed petitions for the office of Crawford County Road Commissioner on the Republican ticket.

Thayer, 62 years old, is a retired teacher, coach and administrator of the Crawford AuSable Schools. He graduated from Chesaning High School, Central Michigan University with a BS Degree and the University of Michigan with a MA degree.

He taught and coached at Turner, Manistee and Beaverton before coming to Grayling in 1956.

Thayer served in the Navy Seabees during World War II as a storekeeper. Most of his time was at Pearl Harbor where he had charge of a supply yard that shipped construction supplies to Seabee Battalions all over the Pacific area. While attending college after the war he received a commission in the Naval Reserve. He was affiliated with Reserve units in Owosso, Mt. Pleasant, Bay City and Cadillac. He advanced to Commanding Officer of the Cadillac Unit.

Thayer also received training at bases at Key West, FL, Charleston, S.C., Norfolk, Va., Newport, RI., Great Lakes and Tacoma, Wash. and aboard ships on the Great Lakes and the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. He retired from the Reserve as a Lieutenant Commander.

He has been active in the community through active participation in the American Legion, Fleet Reserve Association, teaching and elementary principals associations, the Crawford County Federal Credit Union and the Crawford County 10th District, 11th District and State Republican Committees.

Thayer says he has decided to seek this elective office after several years of consideration and observation of the operation of the Road Commission. With his background of administration and leadership he believes he can help to establish policy and budget and assist the engineer-manager to successfully administer the maintenance and improvement of the roads and equipment within the county.

40 GHS Spanish Students Compete In Foreign Language Events at Northwestern College

"We'd Like To Teach the World to Speak in Perfect Harmony" was the theme of the second annual Foreign Language Day sponsored by the Northern Michigan Foreign Language Teachers Association, held March 22, on the campus of Northwestern Michigan College in Traverse City.

Over 40 Grayling High School students from first through fourth year classes and their instructor Nancy Lemmen attended and competed in a variety of events.

Juniors Dawn Elekonich and Janet Petrosky directed the Skit, "Cenicienta," Spanish for "Cinderella," which earned a I (Superior) rating. They also acted in it, as did other 3rd and 4th year students: Lori Dean, Chad Flowers, Mike Goddard, Cathy Hayes, Wayne Sands, Becky Scott and Toye Sheldon.

Supporting parts were filled by 1st-4th year students: Sylvain Auger, Kevin Austin, Cheryl Barber, Mary Beth Boone, Dawn Bouse, Jill Clark, Tammy Duby, Todd Elekonich, Julie Fisher, Andrea Flowers, Joe Francis, Corey Harmer, Lisa Kimball, Amy LaGrow, Cathy Maule, Andy Moore, John Scilbe, Fred Skippy and Chris Zell.

Junior James Montoya, a third year student, sang "La Bamba," with back-up by juniors Cheryl Barber and Lori Dean. Freshman Josh Woodland on the guitar and Matt Branch and Dana Mirate on percussion provided musical accompaniment. The "La Bamba" group also earned a I or Superior rating.

Three GHS students entered the Vocabulary Bees: Freshman Peggy Studer (1st year), sophomore Teresa Ferguson (2nd year), and junior Kenny Elliott (3rd year). Teresa won 1st place in the second year competition, and Both Peggy and Kenny performed well in their respective levels.

Several students prepared and manned two money-making booths, one a loteria (Bingo) game and the other a realia (souvenir) stand: Jeremy Beroset, Linda Denton, Eric Elliott, Linda Goodale, Anna Hagemister, Joanna Myers (chairperson of Realia Booth), Margarita Perez, Dawn Porath, Angela Ross (chairperson of Bingo Booth), Denny Springer and Nikki Trenary.

This was the Spanish Department's 2nd Foreign Language Day of the 1987-88 school year. In November, the group won three trophies at Saginaw Valley State College.

Mercy Breathers Club To Discuss Nutrition

The "Mercy Breathers Club", a self help management information and support group for both COPD patients and their family members, will hold its next monthly meeting Thursday, April 28, at 4:00 p.m. in the Riverside Room at Mercy Hospital, Grayling. Miriam Adelman, Registered Dietician will discuss "COPD and Nutrition".

"Individuals with COPD have special nutritional needs. They need to consume a balance of foods from the basic four food groups. Very often people with COPD limit their consumption of dairy products because they feel milk increases the secretion of phlegm. Studies have shown that the milk itself is not responsible for secretions, but that it is the higher fat milk products that have more of a tendency to produce phlegm. In addition the extra energy that it takes for individuals with COPD to breathe may require them to consume a higher calorie diet to prevent weight loss," states Adelman. She will discuss these as well as other special nutritional needs of people with chronic emphysema, bronchitis and asthma.

Anyone interested in more information about this free "Club", or requiring assistance in getting to the meeting room, may call Donna Pluim at ext. 193 or Keitha Knepp, Supervisor of Cardiorespiratory Department at ext 307.

The next Breathers Club meeting will be at 4:00 p.m., Thursday, May 26, at Mercy Hospital. Guest speaker, Dorrie Lewis, will discuss Occupational Therapy techniques for COPD patients.

Mercy Hospital Joins Organ Donation Campaign

Mercy Hospital, Grayling has joined hospitals and concerned community persons across Michigan and the United States in recognizing the great need for tissue/organ transplants by instituting an ongoing campaign to increase the public's awareness.

Currently in Michigan over 700 people await a kidney transplant, 300 people await a cornea transplant, and over 1,000 people are in need of a bone or skin transplant. Over 500,000 people are in need of a tissue/organ transplant across the nation. Recent Gallop polls show that:

- 94% of all Americans have heard of organ and tissue transplants.

- 66% "very likely" to donate loved one's organs/tissues.

- 43% would donate their child's organs/tissues.

- 30% "very likely" to donate their own organs/tissues.

In 1987, over 1,500 tissue donations were made possible by those families that wished to donate tissues/organs in Michigan.

For more information, contact the Michigan Tissue Bank at 1-800-468-2929.

Bits of Talk

By Sandy McAnallen

This week I talked with several Grayling people who were vacationing in Gulf Shores, Alabama and recently returned home.

Don and Marge Smith were there after they first visited their daughter, Nancy Wilson, and two grandchildren in Orlando, Florida. The Smiths enjoyed a dinner party "reunion" with 38 other Grayling people who were also vacationing in Gulf Shores that same week.

Lucille and Leo Bagrosky returned the 2nd of April from Gulf Shores. They enjoyed playing a lot of golf while there. Leo is looking forward to showing off the golfing expertise he acquired in Gulf Shores when the local mens league begins at the Country Club.

Tom and Thelma Bateman were also in Gulf Shores. On their way home they stopped in Kansas City, Missouri to attend Tom's brother and his wife's 50th wedding anniversary. Tom and Thelma only have five years to go before they celebrate their own 50th.

Wilbur and Betty Stephenson recently returned from Gulf Shores. They noted there was more rain than they cared for but since many friends were also vacationing they still had a great time.

Randy and Lynn Thompson were also in Gulf Shores for their vacation. Unfortunately Randy was sick with the flu for most of their stay there. On one of his better days he went deep sea fishing with Judge Tom Davis and Mike McNamara. These great fishermen brought back Red Snapper, Trigger and Squirrel fish from that excursion.

Captain Bill and Cory Dean of Vandenberg Air Force Base, California announce the birth of a son, Zachary Travis, born April 8, 1988. Proud grandparents are Amber Meech and John and Betty Stevens of Grayling.

Last week I mentioned the Reynolds and Petroskys attended the wedding of the daughter of former Grayling school superintendent, Dr. William Diedrich. Several other Grayling residents also attended this wedding held at St. Gerard church in Lansing, i.e. Paul Lerg, Dave and Patty Hawkins, Pam Williams and Paul and Donna Thomson. It was reported that the wedding ceremony was beautifully elaborate and most impressive.

Colonial Harold and Jo Clingensmith recently returned from traveling around and visiting friends in different cities and towns in Florida.

Ken and Agnes Carlisle returned April 18 from Etowah Valley, a small town in North Carolina where they visited their daughter, Kay Shaner and their two grandchildren.

Art and Lillian Clough returned April 20 from a beautifully relaxing vacation in Englewood, Florida.

Bob and Katy Funck have been wishing they hadn't returned from their vacation in Lakeland, Florida where the temperatures lingered around 85 and 90 degrees most of the time they were there. They returned to Grayling and a week later it snowed. That's Northern Michigan for you.

The Funcks are looking forward to seeing their son, Peter, who is making plans to come to visit for a month or so sometime in the summer. Peter is now in Miami, Florida.

Brad Scheer returned April 20 from a golf vacation in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Brad and a couple of good golf buddies spent around ten days brushing up on their golf game.

Jim and JoAnne Shively returned last week from their travels in their motorhome. Their first stop was in Gulf Shores, Alabama where they spent two days. While there Jim played a couple of rounds of golf with Bill Rutter. From Gulf Shores the Shivelys moved on to Deer Creek, an RV park surrounded by a golf course near Orlando, Florida. There they enjoyed lots of sun, relaxation and, of course, golf. On their way to Englewood, Florida to visit Jim's brother, Chic and his wife Esther, the Shivelys stopped to visit Gil and Rose Crawford in Zephyrhills, Florida. And, finally, the last but not least memorable stop on their travels was to Epcot Center and Disney World.

Marilyn Stampfly hosted a fundraiser for the Fish Hatchery April 18. Over 100 supporters attended the delicious pancake and sausage supper that was served. Over $300 was raised for the Fish Hatchery.

Clyde and Mary Ann Johnson are expecting Clyde's mother, Violet Thompson from Duluth, Minnesota for a month long visit in May. While she is here the Johnsons plan to take her to visit various relatives living here in Michigan.

The April birthdays were celebrated again this year with many of the 'snowbirds' returning just in time. The group started with cocktails at the Dick and Jean Raab home, went out to dinner and then returned to the Raab home for the most important part, the ice cream and birthday cake! The six people who all celebrate April birthdays are Cal and Sue Brenner, Betty Stephenson, Leo Bagrosky, Ken Carlisle and Dick Raab. They were all joined by their spouses, too.

Bruce and Corrine Smith returned a couple of weeks ago after spending three months in Ft. Walton Beach, Florida. Their son, Terry Smith, wife, Janice, and two daughters, visited the Smiths while they were vacationing. On the return to Michigan Bruce and Corrine visited their daughter, Kim Randall, granddaughter, Kerry, and grandson, Bruce, in Washington, Georgia.

Don't forget April 24th through 30th is Secretaries Week. You can show your appreciation for your secretary with these specials from Main Street Florals - Paper clip bud vase $12.98 - Fresh cut flowers arranged in a coffee mug $15.98 - Basket Planter filled with assorted green plants and fresh flowers added $14.98. Mr. and Mrs. John Kasper of Davison, spent a few days visiting his sister, Louise Murphy and brother-in-law in Cocoa, Florida, and his mother, Mrs. Mary Kasper. Mr. and Mrs. Kasper accompanied his mother home, stopping at Gainesville, Florida, to go through the Fred Bear Museum. They arrived in Grayling Friday, April 15th.

Betty Madsen was in Rogers City on Sunday, April 17th, when her grandson, Cory made his First Communion. A brunch was served later at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard S. Madsen.

Remember to call if you have some bits of talk for the Avalanche. My number is 348-7439 evenings.

ONLY GLOWCORE HAS THE RIGHT CONNECTION.

Introducing UniCore — our new integrated heating system that connects the furnace and the water heater. UniCore revolutionizes home heating by combining the efficiencies of our gas furnace and water heater into one extraordinarily efficient home comfort system.

THE SECRET'S IN OUR SINGLE BURNER

Because the furnace and water heater are interconnected, UniCore heats your home and your water with a single burner. Other systems require two burners which do twice the work and burn twice the gas.

LOWER OPERATING COSTS

Older heating systems are 55-65% efficient. Standard high efficiency systems (80-95% AFUE) can save 20-35% on fuel bills. By combining water heating and space heating, UniCore saves even more — as much as 30-45% on fuel bills.

COMPLETE HOME COMFORT

UniCore heats your whole house and provides enough hot water for cooking, dishwashing, laundering and bathing. An average family of four can do all this on our 30-gallon, fast-recovery water heater without running out of hot water.

GIVE US A CALL

And compare GlowCore to Lennox and Carrier. Only GlowCore has the right space and water heating connection — the new UniCore integrated heating system.

Par for the Course

By Fay Bovee

The Grayling Country Club Opening and Happy Hour was a huge success. Undaunted by a snowfall the night before, dreary weather and more snow that day, a crowd of about 75 showed up at the club on Saturday afternoon from 4:30 to 7:30. The afternoon was spent visiting, renewing friendships, many of whom had not seen each other since the last golf season, and partaking of the delicious hors d'oeuvres table prepared by the club staff. The many deer frolicking on the fairways provided some extra entertainment.

Club president, John Wejrowski, and social chairman, Irving McIsaac, held a drawing for a couple of mum plants and sleeves of golf balls. Irving was his usual jolly self, also entertaining with his favorite stories!

The men's leagues start this week and the Wednesday women are holding their organizational meeting this week.

Women's Softball League Meeting On April 28

There will be an organizational meeting of the Grayling Women's Softball league on Thursday, April 28, at Shoppenagon's Hotel at 7:00 p.m. The meeting will include setting up this year's schedule and election of officers. All teams should be represented, and interested new players should plan to attend.

Vikings Start Year With 10-0, 10-1 Wins

The Vikings pounded Fairview 10-0 and 10-1 in the opening doubleheader of the season last Wednesday, April 18.

Chris Skidmore struck out five and only allowed one hit, a single, in the fifth inning of the opener. Jeff Palmer struck out 10 and only allowed two hits in the second game.

Bob Butler led the hitting with a 5 for 6 day including one home run, one double, five runs, and four stolen bases.

John Kinnee went 3 for 7 with a home run, two doubles, and five RBI's. Mike McNamara went 3 for 4 with a double and Flaskie Robins went 3 for 7 with a double and four runs.

Jeff Palmer and Chris Skidmore each added a home run.

Viking coach Fred Wolcott

said the pitching went well and he was pleased the team committed only one error the whole day.

Tuesday, April 26, Grayling went to Gaylord for a league doubleheader. On Thursday, April 28, Grayling goes to West Branch. On Saturday, they go to West Branch and on Tuesday, May 3, Grayling plays Boyne City here at 4 p.m.

One of the greatest hits in baseball history was the unusual home run by Babe Ruth during the 1932 World Series. Ruth came to bat, stopped the game and pointed to the centerfield bleachers, advising the crowd that he was going to hit a home run to that exact spot on the next pitch — and he did! Sportswriters said it was probably the only time in history that a player publicly announced in advance where and when he was going to hit a homer, and then exactly fulfilled his prediction—as to both time and place.

Who won the first Indianapolis 500-mile auto race—and how fast did he go?...The first Indianapolis 500 winner was Roy Harroun, in 1911—and he averaged 75 miles per hour.

Did you know that there are so many golf courses in America that if you put them all together, you'd have an area bigger than the entire state of Rhode Island!

Come see Mike "Babe" Fortino and let him "point" you in the direction of the right car or truck for you. Hit a home run this summer in a new car!

... about your Social Security

Report Change of Address - Even with Direct Deposit

Over the past couple of months, we've received many calls from beneficiaries wondering why Social Security didn't send them a notice about the change in the cost of Medicare. Or, they wondered why they weren't notified by mail about the increase in their benefit amount which was paid on the check received in January.

Since Social Security always sends notices of such changes, we wondered too why these callers hadn't received them. So we looked into the problem, and found that, in most cases, these callers have direct deposit of their checks into a bank account, and we did not have their current mailing address on file. They had moved, but since their checks go directly to the bank, they had not told Social Security when they moved.

If you receive Social Security or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) checks, be sure to tell Social Security whenever you change your address, even if your benefits are sent directly to your bank or other financial institution. We need your address to send you information about your benefits and Medicare. We also may need to contact you to make sure you continue to be eligible to receive benefits. If we cannot locate you, we may need to stop your benefits until we can find you.

It's easy to report a change of address. You can do it by calling the Traverse City office at (616) 946-8360. Hours are 9:00-4:30, Monday through Friday. If you prefer to report by mail, write us at 1111 E. Front St., Traverse City, MI 49684. Be sure to show your claim number on your letter.

A Social Security representative is at the County Building in Grayling on the first and third Tuesday of each month, from 10:30 until 2:00. There is no phone service at this location.

Paper Towels Serve Many Purposes In Microwaves

Microwaving has become a fast and easy way to warm up or cook almost any food item imaginable. People who purchase microwaves quickly learn which containers can be safely used in microwaves and which should be avoided.

One of the major concerns is avoiding the use of any metal or metal-containing objects, including metal pans, dishes, aluminum foil (except for special circumstances, such as shielding according to directions) and even twist ties.

Some plastics are formulated for use in the microwave, but others become brittle and crack.

Paper products such as paper plates and paper towels are easy, convenient and versatile tools for microwaving. Within the past couple of years, microwavable paper towels have been developed and marketed. Their introduction raised some concern about the safety of using ordinary, multipurpose paper towels in the microwave. According to the Food and Drug Administration, no reported evidence exists that microwaving with traditional paper towels will harm consumers. If you remain concerned despite the FDA statement, you may want to use only the microwavable paper towels. They are made from natural fibers with no bleaching agents, artificial dyes or colorants. A food grade glue is also part of their formulation.

Paper towels can be used to line a bowl, wrap a product or act as a spatter shield for the bottom of the microwave oven. The paper towels absorb excessive oil, fat and moisture in greasy foods, such as bacon, and moist foods, such as bread, which can be heated without excessive sogginess.

To keep moist foods moist, you may dampen paper towels before wrapping foods. Wrapping with two to four layers of damp toweling insulates large, moist products, allowing them to cook for several minutes without moisture loss.

As always when you're cooking, exercise care. Though it doesn't happen often, paper products can ignite with excessive heating, especially if the foods heated are low-moisture products that are high in sugars and starches.

Ferguson Inducted Into Coaches Hall of Fame

By Nancy Lemmen

The Michigan High School Football Coaches Association recognized this year what Grayling students, parents and sports fans have known for years: coach Don Ferguson deserves a spot in the MHSFCA Hall of Fame.

On April 16, at University of Michigan's Crisler Arena, Ferguson and 19 other outstanding high school football coaches from throughout the state were guests at a banquet to officially induct them into the Hall of Fame.

Ferguson, who has been teaching and coaching for 30 years in the Crawford AuSable School District, says he will keep coaching until he retires. Doesn't he ever get tired of it? "Oh, no. I haven't yet. I like to be with kids, have fun with them, see them have a good time."

Coach Ferguson's athletic career reaches back to the days when he was a football, basketball and baseball player at Harrison High School. He was selected for All-State honorable mention his junior and senior years in football and was voted "Best Athlete of the Senior Class" by his classmates.

At Central Michigan University, where he studied physical education, history and health/science, he continued playing sports. He was a guard and linebacker in football, playing for the freshman team his first year and moving to the varsity team for the rest of his college career. He also wrestled his sophomore and junior years, when CMU's team was in its infancy.

Upon graduation from CMU in 1958, Ferguson took a job with the Crawford AuSable School District. His teaching assignments were high school government and physical education and middle school science, health, physical education and history.

His coaching assignments were equally diverse. With Bruce Smith, whom he credits with teaching him all the things he needed to know, Ferguson coached all three sports: head coach for football, junior varsity coach for basketball and co-coach for track.

He says that he kept the basketball position for several years, track for nearly two decades and, of course, football for 30. For a few of those years he was head football coach. He has been the high school wrestling team coach since 1972.

REGIONAL HONORS

Ferguson has also received recognition for his efforts in other sports. He has been selected three times as a Regional Wrestling Coach of the Year and was voted Regional Track Coach of the Year in 1970.

As for this most recent honor and the induction banquet, Ferguson is pleased in his modest, low-key way. "It was really nice, first class." Bo Schembechler, whom he describes as "a super guy, very sincere and interested in what each inductee had to say," introduced guest speaker Alex Agase, a former college coach and EMU athletic

"It's fun to see students succeed in life, and athletics helps them build a background to succeed."

Hall of Fame Coach Don Ferguson

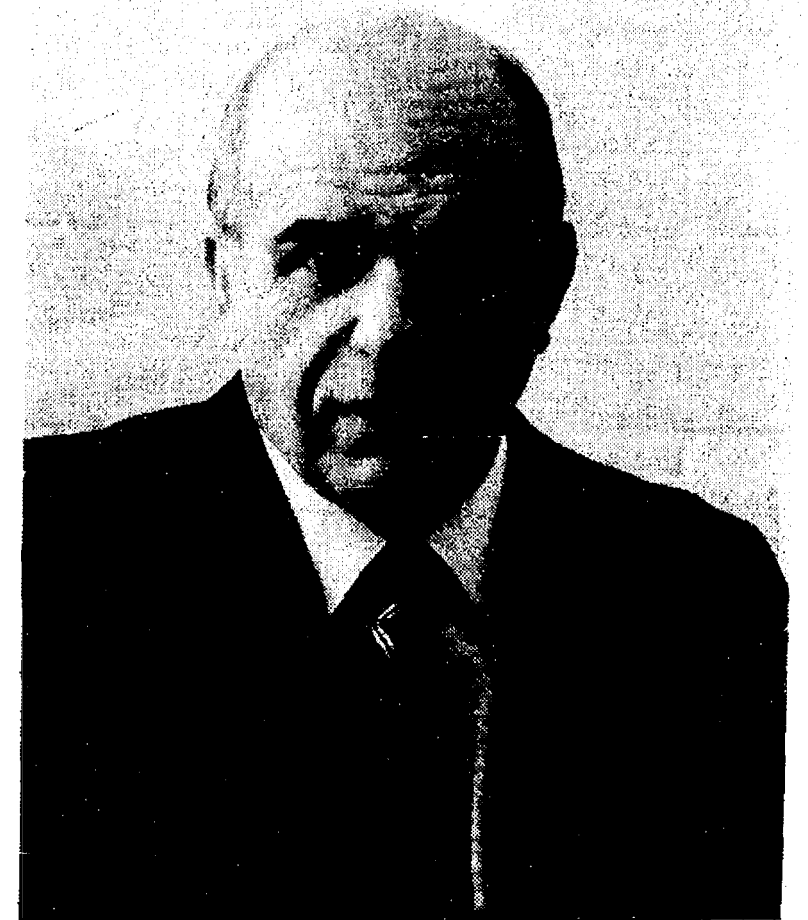

director, now serving as a UM volunteer coach.

Following the Agase speech, Hall of Fame chairman Tom Fagan introduced the twenty inductees. In a brief speech following his introduction, Ferguson credited his wife Joanne and son Tim for their help, sacrifice and support throughout his years as a coach. Joining them at the banquet was a contingent of family members, teaching and coaching colleagues, friends, former students, and present and past administrators.

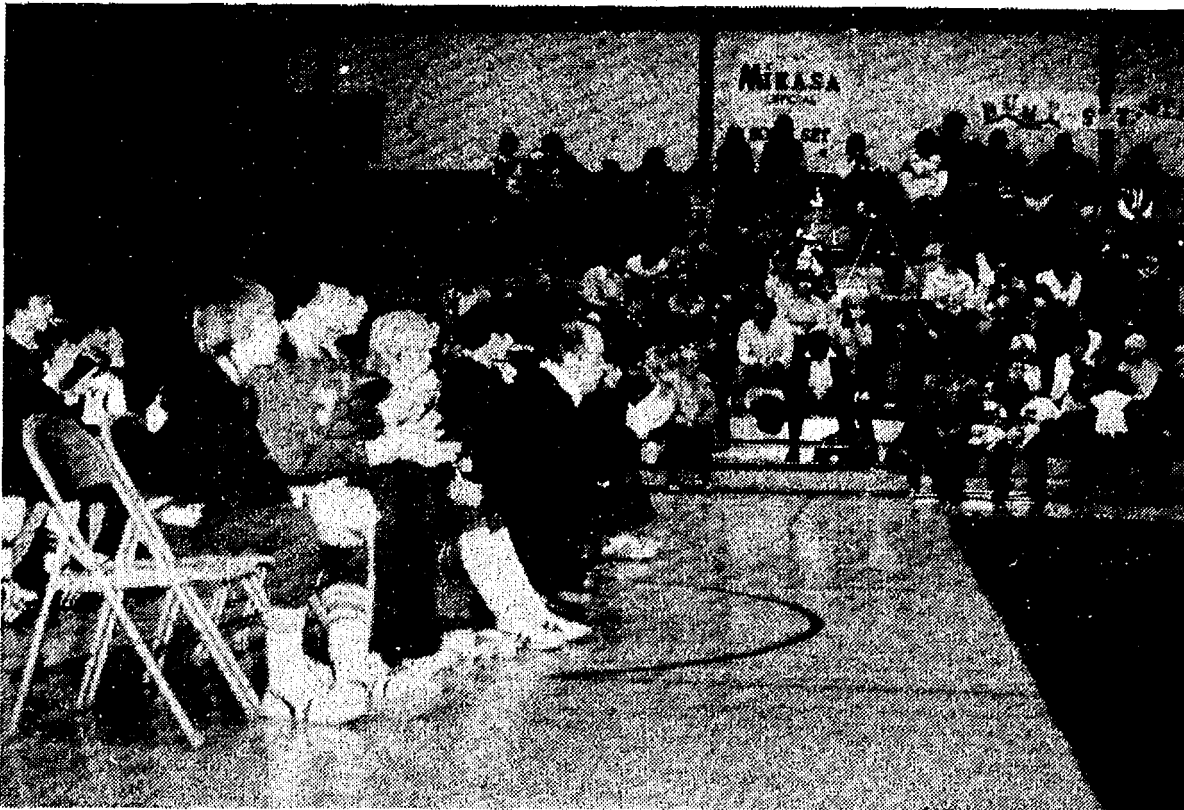

The MHSFCA Hall of Fame opened in 1982 on the campus of the University of Michigan. The 20 coaches inducted in 1988 bring the number of inductees to 174. Program notes from the banquet indicate that the association is very proud of its Hall of Fame, because its creation was one of the major goals established by the organization.

Likewise, Grayling High School and the entire CASD has occasion to be very proud of coach Don Ferguson for his long and impressive record. Grayling is fortunate to have received the services of this dedicated man who says simply, "I enjoy teaching and coaching both. It's fun to see students succeed in life, and athletics helps them build a background to succeed."

Lake Margrethe Fish Management Started in 1876

(Editor's note: The following article was written and submitted to the Avalanche by local DNR Fisheries Technician John Norcross).

According to early records, management of Lake Margrethe fish stocks began with the introduction of 35,000 white fish in 1876. Though the records are not continuous, we find that in 1906 there was a plant of a quarter million walleye fry, three thousand rainbow trout and 36,000 lake trout. Lake trout were stocked again in 1907 with 34,000 young. In 1910 ten thousand rainbow trout and twelve thousand five hundred landlocked salmon were introduced.

Early efforts to establish viable self-perpetuating population of game fish particularly of the salmon family (salmon and trout) were a hit or miss affair. In light of the past state of knowledge concerning physical requirements of fish and lack of information regarding physical features of lakes, it is not surprising that effort to establish cold water forms met with failure.

Species found to be most successful were northern pike and walleye. Early records make no mention of plants of northern pike so apparently the northern was a native fish accessing the lake by way of Portage Creek and the Manistee River system. It is assumed that the population level of northern pike in Lake Margrethe was never very high because of the limited spawning area available to adult fish. It is also probable that plants of walleyes in the early 1900's did not result in a fishery of much prominence because of extremely high mortality of fry and absence of suitable spawning reefs in the lake for natural reproduction

PRODUCTIVE LAKE

Lake Margrethe is a productive lake. Its richness is measured in part by the diversity of its warm water species and more particularly by the growth of northern pike some of whom have attained respectable size in past years. Past surveys of the lake consistently allude to the tremendous abundance of forage fish (primarily shiners) so it is not surprising that northern fare well in the lake.

The lake supports an active year-round fishery most intense in winter where an average of about 65 ice shanties may be found. The winter ice fishery targets mainly on northern pike. Despite high productivity, Lake Margrethe has shortcomings unfavorable for fish production. These are physical attributes so necessary for production and protection of the young.

The lake bottom has surprisingly little cover for juvenile fish and there is limited marsh areas for spawning of northern pike and virtually no wave swept rocky shoal areas for walleye spawning. Past, present and future management techniques have attempted and will continue to attempt to correct the above deficiencies.

Members of the Grayling Sportsmen Club constructed a total of 101 brush shelters in the winters of 1947, 1950 and 1952. This same group, in 1957, hauled rocks on the ice to form a 20 x 60 foot spawning bar. Early this spring, a large brush shelter was placed on the ice some 200-300 yards off the south shore through the efforts of local sportsmen spearheaded by Skip's Sport Shop.

PIKE SPAWNING MARSH

A small naturally occurring bog is located at the extreme south end of the lake. In the fall of 1967, a concrete structure was built in the outlet to control the water level thus creating an artificial northern pike spawning marsh. Each year, since establishment of the spawning marsh, the following routine takes place. As soon as snow begins to melt, spring rains occur, and ice begins to leave the lake, the control structure is blocked permitting the water level to rise to a predetermined height. Shortly after ice cover has left the lake, a submerged fish trap is set near the outlet of the pike marsh.

Adult northern pike nearing reproductive readiness congregate in that area. As soon as a total of 20 pounds of females and enough males to provide for a ratio of two males to one female are caught and released in the artificial marsh, the trap is removed. Some 10 to 12 weeks after the adults have spawned, young pike begin to appear near the outlet.

At that time, a counting box is installed below the barrier and draw down of the marsh begins with removal of boards anchored in the structure. Young are about 2-1/2" long and very active when counted and released into the lake. Drawdown continues until the last boards are removed and all the pike young and old gain entry to the lake. The pike marsh remains at a very low level until the following spring, thus enhancing plant growth, aeration of exposed soils and elimination of predators which would have been present had water levels remained high.

92,000 NORTHERNS REARED

While operation of a pike marsh, by most fishery standards, is relatively labor intensive, we feel that this approach offers the best means of optimizing a limited resource such as is found in this small bog. Without creation of this small nursery area, northern pike production in Lake Margrethe would indeed be very limited. Total plantings in Lake Margrethe since 1970 have been 195,000 walleyes; 92,000 northern pike reared in the artificial marsh and released into the lake.

This figure represents a minimal value since in some years overflow of the marsh prevented accurate counts. Tiger Muskies, a northern pike-muskellunge hatchery reared hybrid, were first introduced in 1979 and since that time a total of 39,000 have been released.

This spring we transferred the yearly quota of adult male and female northern pike to the artificial marsh. In the few days required to obtain the fish, we also captured 63 walleyes whose numbers and size strongly indicate Lake Margrethe may very well provide an excellent walleye fishery. Male walleyes averaged slightly over 21 inches and 3 pounds while females averaged an impressive 25 inches and 6 pounds with the largest fish being a female of 25.7 inches and 7.3 pounds.

Future plans call for continued operation of the artificial pike marsh. It is also anticipated that 60,000 walleye fingerlings will be planted in 1989 with a like amount due in 1991.

In view of an ever expanding human population and increasing interest in fishing, it is imperative that due consideration be given to improving the natural environment. To that end, plans are underfoot to create more brush shelters and a large spawning reef. With continued cooperation and interest of our local fishing enthusiasts these plans can become more than pipe dreams.

Grayling Attorney Attends Open Adoption Conference

Grayling attorney Grace Dopp Wegner attended the Second National Conference on Open Adoption held in Traverse City on April 14, 15 and 16.

Open Adoption is a relatively new concept which has been utilized in Michigan for approximately 8 yrs., but is still not used widely. Open Adoption differs from the traditional adoption in that there is a full disclosure of identity as to all parties, the adoptive parents, the birth mother, the birth father and the adoptee. The adoptive parents and the birth parents enter into a mutual, 'gentleman's agreement' to encompass a shared relationship with the adopted child.

The agreement is based on mutual trust and is not legally enforceable as the adoptive parents are in full control of the extent to which they desire to have the interaction of the birth parent or parents. This interaction may range from a simple exchange of information or pictures to actual visitation by the birth parents. The degree of the shared relationship in some cases has extended to visitation by grandparents and other relatives related to the child by birth.

Regardless of the openness extended by the adoptive parents during the child's upbringing, the child, upon reaching the age of majority, will be able to obtain the information as to his heritage through the Adoption Agency.

Only three States have enacted legislation to open up State adoption records so that adult adopted persons may gain access to these records to obtain information regarding their identity, genealogical history and in some instances, necessary medical information. Proponents of openness in adoption believe the sealing of these records is a denial to the adult adopted person of his basic human rights.

The conference was addressed by many experts in the field from all parts of the County discussing the ethics, concerns, problems, progress and success of the program. The goal to be attained by Openness in Adoptions is to give the adoptive child the right to their heritage, to know who they are, past, present and future, and to achieve that end through a shared relationship and interaction of all persons involved.

If anyone desires further information regarding Open Adoptions or Open Records on Adoption, Grace Dopp Wegner will assist you to get in contact with the proper agency.

Louise Hartig

Louise E. Hartig, age 87, of Grayling Township, died Monday, April 18, 1988, at Mercy Hospital.

Born April 17, 1901, in Frankfort, Germany, she and her husband owned and operated a grocery business in Saginaw before moving to Grayling in 1945. She was a member of the Heritage Baptist Church.

Preceded in death by her husband, John, in 1982 she is survived by one son, Edwin Hartig, of Grayling, and one daughter, Lillian Haiderer, of Saginaw. Also six grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, April 21, at the First Baptist Church, Frederic, with the Reverend Kenneth Haley, and the Reverend Dwight Knasel officiating. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Frederic.

Pallbearers were John Haiderer, Thomas Haiderer, William Hartig, Charles Bushey, David Englund, and Bennie Pratt.

Donald W. Chandler

A Funeral Mass was celebrated on Monday, April 11th, at St. Aidans Church of Livonia and was sang by the St. Aidans Choir. Burial was in St. Thomas Cemetery in Ann Arbor. Arrangements were made by the Will Funeral Home.

Mr. Chandler, 60, died on April 7th at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. He is survived by his wife, Joyce, sons Gregory of Saline; Jeffrey of Dayton; Thomas of Midland; John of Plymouth and daughter, Jennifer a student at CMU and three grandchildren. He is also survived by two sisters: Shirley Gain of Milwaukee and Barbara Alexander of Naples, Fla., and Lake Margrethe.

Mr. Chandler was born in Flint and graduated from Flint Northern High School, class of 1946. He then served two years in the United States Navy with an honorable discharge. He earned a BA degree from the University of Michigan class of 1952 and an MBA degree from the University of Michigan, class of 1953. He was a member of the Chi Phi Fraternity.

Mr. Chandler was a founding member of St. Aidans Church of Livonia, its Men's Club and served on the Parish Council. He taught in the CCD Program and was also a founder and life long member of St. Aidan's Choir.

Mr. Chandler was a member of the Burton Hollow Civic Association. He was also a member of the Wayne Second Republican Party, a member of the Engineering Society of Detroit, and Past Director of the National Society for Computer Simulation. He was Director of Marketing for Applied Dynamics International, a company he was associated with, for more than 25 yrs.

Don was a member of the LMPOA, the Manistee River Association, and Harbor Beach Association.

Chandler and his family have been coming to Grayling for close to 60 years. Don loved the Grayling community, our extended family. He loved Lake Margrethe, the beautiful AuSable and Manistee Rivers and cherished his beloved woods. As a very young boy Don had memories of General Wilson sending his aide with a horse to his parents cottage on Lake Margrethe to spend the day at Camp Grayling. General and Mrs. Wilson were close friends of Don's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Czacharski, as were many wonderful families in the Grayling area. The Grayling people created so many beautiful memories for Don and his family. Jack Alef would always greet him by saying "Welcome Home" and Don's wide grin would follow!

Memorial contributions may be made to Grayling St. Mary's Parish, Att. Jack Alef, Chairman of the Board, Grayling State Bank, Grayling, Mi. or in the form of Mass offerings at Grayling St. Mary's Parish. The Chandler family has established a memorial in Don's memory dedicated to the Childrens Christian Teaching Program of St. Mary's Parish.

CARD OF THANKS

Thank you from the bottom of my socks, somehow from the bottom of my heart just didn't seem deep enough. The party that was given for me will be something I will never forget. It touched me in a way I really can't explain.

To thank all of you personally just isn't possible, but to let each and everyone of you know that I have a place in my heart for all of you is possible.

The many gifts and money were very appreciated. I will be back to visit all of you I promise. Take care and God Bless.

Love, Sue UPS

John Leonard Beyer, 22, of Bay City plead guilty to a charge of OUIL. He was fined $405 or 30 days, license suspended 6 months, and restricted license for work. He was cited by the sheriff dept.

a charge of impaired driving. He was fined $355 or 30 days, license suspended 90 days and restricted license for work. He was cited by the sheriff dept. on Mar. 28, 1987.

CORRECTION

The Crawford County Avalanche erred in recent District Court news published concerning Terry Lyn Press.

In our April 21, 1988, and December 24, 1987, issues, the Avalanche mistakenly stated "She was cited..." The statements should have said "He was cited..."

Also, in the April 21st issue, the Avalanche incorrectly stated Press plead guilty to 2 charges of larceny in a building.
The statement should have said Press demanded preliminary examination to 2 charges of larceny in a building.
The Avalanche apologizes for the errors.

A SALUTE TO

CAMP GRAYLING'S
75 YEARS

The summer-long Diamond Jubilee celebration of Camp Grayling will include Homecoming Week June 19-26.

To help kick-off Homecoming Week, the Crawford County Avalanche will publish a special salute to Camp Grayling. Photographs and articles will look back at the camp founded in 1913.

If your business wishes to recognize Camp Grayling's 75th Anniversary, call the Avalanche, 348-6811, by June 2.

Congratulations
To

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

Religious Hypocrisy Today

Part 1

Why do most Americans have an uneasy feeling about the future? Why is there growing moral breakdown when leading national polls tell us 95% of us believe in God; 85% of us claim we had religious instruction as a child; 72% of us claim the same religious affiliation as our parents, and 56% of us attend religious services with some regularity? Why are murder, drug abuse, child abuse and other social evils continuing to plague us?

The Fundamental News Service of the American Council of Christian Churches gives us an excellent overview in an article entitled, "A Conflict in Prognosis." Reporting the results of a poll of 10,000 clergy, we discover a growing abandonment of basic Christian beliefs. The following percentages said "no" when asked if they accepted Jesus' physical resurrection as a fact: 51% United Methodist (UMC); 35% Presbyterian Church USA (PCUSA); 30% Episcopalians (EC); 33% American Baptists (ABC); 13% American Lutherans (ALC); and 7% Missouri Synod Lutheran. There is no gospel and no salvation without the resurrection. (1 Cor. 15:17).

When these clergy were asked if they believed in the Virgin Birth of Jesus Christ, the following replied "no": 60% - UMC; 49% - PCUSA; 44% - EC; 34% - ABC; 19% - ALC; and 5% - LCM. The virgin birth is an essential doctrine of the deity of Jesus Christ. To deny the virgin birth of Christ is to imply an illegitimate birth for Jesus and an immoral character for the virgin Mary. Such young preachers are blasphemers.

When asked if they believed the Scriptures are the inspired and inerrant Word of God in faith, history and secular matters the following clergy replied "no": 87% - UMC; 95% - EC; 82% - PCUSA; 67% - ABC; 77% - ALC; and 24% - LCM. All of the above churches were founded at one time upon the final authority of the Bible as God's Revelation of pure truth in all areas wherein it speaks.

We are in the midst of a spiritual awakening planted on rocky soil of unbelief. We are experiencing a political awakening of conservatism in politics which does not restore the God-given rights of the Declaration of Independence.

We are confounded on all sides with religious atheism. Truth has been buried in the shroud of love. Warnings have been silenced by cries of "bigotry". Ecumenical unity has opened the mind, and barred reason. Have we become like Israel before her fall? "...Truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yea, Truth falleth..." (Isaiah 59:14, 15).

The Deacon's Speakin'

Deacon Bob Nolan

Scripture Reference: John 15:1-8

This passage from the Last Supper must be read with the understanding of the Eucharistic Celebration which is its center. The blessing and the consecration of the wine recalls the story of the vine and its branches. Here Jesus wants to point out that He realizes in His own Person that He is the means of salvation which is open to the people of God. The main thought is the union begun in this life between the Christian and Jesus Christ. The Christian is not living before Christ, standing before Him; but the Christian lives in Christ.

The Christian is made part of Christ as a branch and a vine. Without Christ we are nothing. To Christ we owe our existence and our life. A vine that produces a branch which is just wood, perhaps has leaves, but there are no fruits. Vinedressers cut them off and throw them away.

Are there people who profess the Gospel but bear no fruits? I think those who do not bother to live for and by Christ while professing the Gospel in their own way fall into that category.

All Christians should realize that to be in real, full communion with Christ, it is necessary to be vitally connected to the Church, for the Church of today is the continuation of Christ. One of the saddest facts of our modern Church is the claim on the part of the generous but straying persons that they are serving the Gospel while at the same time cutting themselves off from the Church. To use another figure, they are branches cut off from the vine, that become dry and die.

It can happen that certain exciting ideas and projects, or simply a lack of insight, weakness of mind, will cause a Christian to follow the wrong path and even become unfaithful.

It is at this point that the Lord trims and cleanses the mind and the heart of the shaky Christian, cutting out what might capture vital energies. This trimming can cause suffering, but fidelity to the faith as well as purity of will and intention demands painful discipline.

How is it possible to remain in Christ without following Him in sacrifice? The wonderful of the Resurrection presupposes the suffering on the Cross. The Lord's Cross was His supreme preparation. His perfect emptying of Himself. For us it means supreme purification. If you are suffering in mind or heart or body, draw sap from the Vine which is Christ, and be encouraged by recalling the promise of the Vinedresser, God the Father.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

A Day Not Wasted

Brooks Adams, son of one-time ambassador to Great Britain Charles Francis Adams, wrote in his diary when just a boy: "Went fishing with my father—the most glorious day of my life." So great was the influence of that one day's personal relationship with his father that for thirty years afterward he made repeated references in his diary to his memory of that occasion.

The other side of the story is sad. The father had also written in his diary about that same day: "Went fishing with my son. A day wasted."

Let's give the ambassador benefit of the doubt; perhaps they caught no fish and that accounted for his evaluation, "A day wasted." Yet, the purpose of going fishing with one's son is not to catch fish!

GRADUATION '88

A Special Time To Remember

The Avalanche will be publishing a Grayling High School Graduation Special Section in our June 9th issue.

Individual photographs of seniors plus pictures of wonderful moments throughout the school year will make the section a keepsake to treasure.

If you have someone close to you graduating, or if your business has employees with children graduating, you may want to help make this Graduation Section extra special for them.

Call the Avalanche at 348-6811 before May 26 and we can design a congratulatory ad just for your special GHS graduate.

BUDDY'S WORKSHOP

Reciprocating Saw a Good Investment

Recently I was talking to a contractor and noticed a saw laying on the front seat of his truck. I had never seen one like it before. He told me it was a reciprocating saw and he couldn't work without one. Would it be worth it for a homeowner like me to have one around the house?

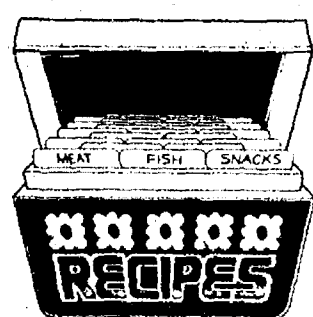

It all depends on how much actual work you do on your house. If you do a lot of tinkering, a reciprocating saw can be invaluable. They are easy to handle, probably as safe as a power saw can get, and they can cut anything from 1/4-inch plywood to metal. All it takes is a simple changing of the blade. Compared to many saws it is expensive, but if you're going to use it, it's worth every penny.

I know you can't stand on the top rung of a stepladder or an extension ladder, but yet their size includes those steps. How do you figure out the actual work height? Also, does the color of the ladder have anything to do with its rating or capacity?

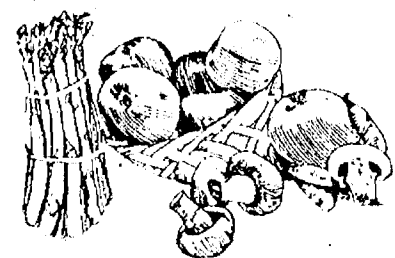

As a general rule, subtract one foot of a stepladder's length and three feet of an extension ladder's length to arrive at its usable height. The color of a ladder doesn't mean anything. It's the manufacturer's method of making their product eye-appealing.

How close to the edge of the roof should I install insulation batts? Should I install a vapor barrier?

Install the insulation about halfway on the wall plate so you don't block air movement through soffit vents. Make sure you staple the insulation so it doesn't move. Unless you are installing insulation for the first time in the attic, don't use a vapor barrier. The barrier should be directly against the ceiling of the living space.

By Phyllis Brummer

When we think potatoe, many of us think "fattening," but it is only what we put on it that makes it fattening. The potatoe is fat free, high fiber, and a good source of vitamin C. Potatoes contain complex carbohydrates which are essential to good health. Our bodies spend more energy in metabolizing carbohydrates than in metabolizing fats, so more calories are used up when we eat starchy foods rather than foods with high fat content. Substitutions can be made in some recipes to reduce fats and/or calories. Use low fat milk instead of whole milk or half and half; use low fat cheese instead of whole milk cheese; use nonfat yogurt instead of sour cream. Use low fat cottage cheese in place of creamed cottage cheese. Use more herbs and spices.

It wouldn't be Spring without creamed new potatoes and peas or tiny boiled onions. If you want to make it quick and easy, use canned cream of mushroom soup diluted with milk instead of white sauce. Add a little dill or mint.

For a hot German potatoe salad, place 8 frozen oval hash brown patties in a 9 x 13 baking dish. Brown 4 strips of bacon, diced, in a skillet, add 2/3 cup chopped onion and cook until onion is tender. Add one can cream of celery soup, 3/4 cup water, 3 TBSP. vinegar, 2 tsp. sugar and pepper to taste. Pour over potatoes and bake one hour at 375°. Sprinkle with parsley before serving.

If it's a to-heck-with-it-all day, fix Potatoes Anna. Pare and slice baking potatoes. In a shallow casserole with a cover, overlap slices in a ring around the outside of the pan, then fill in the middle. Drizzle very generously with melted sweet butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. If making a larger quantity, add a second layer, overlapping in the opposite direction. Cover and bake about 30 minutes at 425°. Uncover and bake 5 to 10 minutes more.

If you like twice-baked potatoes, allow some extra time and bake several - or a lot - of mature, starchy potatoes. Scoop out the insides, mash and add your choice of seasonings and refill the skins. Reserve the number you need for your meal and freeze the remainder on a cookie sheet, arranged so that they are not touching. When frozen, wrap individually in foil. Reheat in oven in the foil without thawing.

"Oven Fried" potatoes are easily prepared with the method used by the catering service at the Michigan State University Union. Thoroughly drain and pat dry with paper towels one or more cans of small, whole potatoes. Drop them into deep fat heated to 375° and fry until brown. Drain on paper towels and season as desired.

New red potatoes are coming into the stores now. Try steaming about 1 1/2 pounds with skins on until tender but not falling apart. While they cook, mix 5-6 TBSP. softened butter with 4 tsp. chopped fresh tarragon leaves, or 2 tsp. dried, and salt and pepper to taste. Toss the mashed potatoes in the butter and serve. Makes 4 servings. If you have the opportunity to shop in some of the larger towns, you will find stores that carry fresh herbs all year-round.

Potatoes can be used in many ways to stretch leftovers. Here's one way using ham.

Ham, Potatoe and Green Pepper Casserole
4 c. pared, thinly sliced potatoes
3 c. ham cubes
1/2 green pepper, chopped fine
2 green onions, chopped or 1/4 c. yellow onion, chopped
2 TBSP. butter or margarine
3 TBSP. flour
3/4 tsp. dry mustard
2 c. milk

Arrange half of potatoes in greased 2 quart casserole. Combine ham, pepper and onions and spread over potatoes. Add remaining potatoes. Melt butter in saucepan. Add flour and mustard. Slowly add milk and heat, stirring, until thick and smooth. Add salt and pepper to taste. Pour over potatoes. Cover and bake one hour at 375°. Uncover and bake about 30 minutes longer until potatoes are tender and golden.

If serving time for dinner is uncertain, fix these mashed potatoes to slip under the broiler at the last minute.

Mashed Potatoes

3 c. hot mashed potatoes, not seasoned

1 egg lightly beaten

2 TBSP. soft butter

3/4 c. sour cream

1/8 tsp. pepper

1 tsp. salt

1/4 tsp. nutmeg

Mix all ingredients and spread in a shallow, buttered, one quart casserole. Broil 4 inches from heat for 3 to 4 minutes or until hot and golden.

This recipe for boiled new potatoes appeared in the Bay City Times last week. It sounds worth trying.

Herbed Potatoe Slices

1 pound red potatoes, sliced 1/4 inch thick, not pared

1/4 c. Worcestershire sauce with white wine

1/4 c. butter, melted

2 tsp. chopped fresh herbs such as thyme, sage or parsley

coarse salt, pepper

Arrange potatoes in single layer on broiler rack or baking sheet. In bowl, combine Worcestershire sauce and butter. Brush half the mixture on the potatoe slices and sprinkle with half the herb and salt and pepper. Broil until slices begin to brown. Turn and brush with remaining sauce and sprinkle with remaining herb and salt and pepper. Broil about 3 minutes longer. Serves 4.

Everyone has a favorite recipe for potatoe soup and potatoe salad. These will be featured at a later date. Send in your recipes.

The wild violets are in blossom now and they make beautiful decorations for your cakes and frozen desserts. Be sure they are gathered from an area that has not been sprayed with fertilizer or insecticides. Pick the blossoms and cut off the stems. Wash carefully if necessary and dry thoroughly. Whisk an egg white into a light frost and apply it carefully to the flower. If you have a very small paint brush, this works best; otherwise, dip the flower into the eggwhite and shake off the excess. Dust with superfine sugar on all surfaces, including underside, shake off excess and reapply sugar until all surfaces are coated. Separate the petals if necessary with a toothpick. Allow to dry thoroughly. Drying can be expedited by impaling the blossom on a toothpick and inserting the other end into styrofoam or an apple.

Oops! In the recipe for open face Reuben sandwiches in the April 7 column, the quantity for sauerkraut should be 16 ounces rather than 6 ounces as printed.

Poet's Corner

Kevin Lee

*This isn't an anniversary
Or some special day,
But maybe it'll help others
To not learn the hard way.
I never really cared before,
But now I know much much more.*

*They all say he was quite a special guy
Too good for words, too young to die
A many lives he did brighten,
Let me go on so you too will be frightened.
A mere 19 he'll always be
To grow old and dear, he'll never see.
Oh yes, it could have been prevented
His car new instead of dented.*

*You sigh and may not want to continue
But just think next it could be you.
You couldn't tell or never would know
As you got in your car to go.*

*But before you knew it
Your car would be hit
Your legs would be gone
No, it doesn't take long.
Perhaps you would die from shock
Or maybe the door would be locked.*

*Next the car goes up in flames
By then the cops are asking names
There's nothing left to the car or you
Nothing the doctors or ambulance can do.*

*While all this is taking place
There are many with a tear streaked face.
This is what became of my friend
But here my story does not end.
The memory of him is still around
Even after he lies deep in the ground.*

*There's still his class ring, his music, his room.
Why does he now live in a cold tomb?
My sad tale does end here
But this story will be clear for many years.*

*Go out with friends
Have fun and party,
But please, before you turn that key
Remember this and think of Kevin Lee.*

Verse or Worse

By Joseph D. Murphy

Sands of Time

*We spend our lives in quiet desperation,
Trying to stem the sands of time,
Still time carries us ever onward
No respite can we find.*

*Some try to deny time's passage
Try to cling to days of youth.
They can dye their hair and cream their skin
Still they can not deny time's truth.*

*Each passing day extracts it's toll.
What's gone is gone forever.
We can yearn for yesterday
But to return there we can never.*

*There's no way we can change the past
Correct mistakes we made back then.
We can only strive in the future
Not to make the same mistakes again.*

*The sands of time do not stop
They flow on at their measured pace.
No one stays young forever
We can only face age with grace.*

Everyone is familiar with erosion. It is a basic physical process of earth change that students learn about in elementary school. Most people are therefore aware of the ability of wind and water to wear away even the hardest of rocks.

At the bottom of the river or stream tiny grains of sand and pebbles are carried along, bumping into one another, becoming smaller all the time. As this material moves, imagine the Colorado River and the Grand Canyon. The scale is tremendously different, but that is the only difference. The Colorado at flood stage carries boulders the size of houses in the same manner as the AuSable carries pebbles the size of marbles.

Eventually, the boulders and the pebbles end up as minute particles on the bottom of an ocean, ready to be transformed into a mountain again through the slow process of uplifting or the violent process of volcanism.

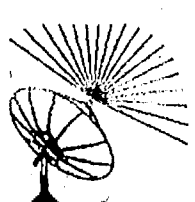

The process of erosion has shaped the world that we know today. That world is being continually changed, day by day. By taking a few minutes, you may gain a better understanding of that process as you watch it in action.

Spring, if you haven't already guessed is probably my favorite time of year and my thoughts often turn to what was going on in the logging industry of a 100 or more years ago. Specifically what was happening on the many rivers all over the state. What follows may or may not be fiction but the reward will come with the "Blowin' er in" when they get to Muskegon.

April 10, 1891 - Today is Friday and we wont break the rollway altho all is redy. We have been gittin redy for two weeks now. April 11, 1891 - Charlie (the boss?) came in this mornin with its day lite on the creek boys lets put er in. This is my first dive as a river rat no bringin down the rear this year. Dark - April 11 She went in with a roar. We got logs and out all over down the river for 2 - 3 miles. No jams. Wet and cold, last night in a bunk. Sunday,

April 12, '91 - Close to 8 miles down tendin the big loop. Small center jam today no way to it 'cept wade. Ice floatin with the logs. Hot wiskey, hot wiskey I cry or I will surly die. April 14 - Still tendin on the big loop. Theys 6 of us tryin to keep em off a snag. Slung a boom an got a hook into it and pulled it out. Red got his leg brok today. Lucky thats all. French pulled him out by the collar. Loss his peavy. Boy did the Big Push (Charlie?) give him what for. April 17, '91 - Sid slept with his head down river las nite. A man will die sartin sure.

Grayling Commemorative Poster To Be Produced This Year

A Grayling Commemorative Poster will be produced this spring with expected delivery in mid-July. These 24" x 36" posters are colorful and historical souvenirs of our city.

The Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce has been in contact with Mainstream Concepts, Inc. regarding the production of this poster. Within the next few weeks a representative from Mainstream will be contacting Chamber members to offer the opportunity to display their business on the poster. Several points of interest and various public buildings will also be on the poster.

If you have any questions, or would like to see examples of these prints, please stop in at the Chamber office 9-5 Monday-Friday.

“Once I decided on the boat, I could have gotten the loan anywhere.”

“Then I made the right move and chose NBD.”

“All I knew was this summer, I'd be out on my new boat every chance I could. Out on the water—under the sun. That's what was important.

“So when the dealer started talking boat loans, I figured a boat loan was—a boat loan. Right?”

“Then a client suggested I give NBD a try. It was definitely one of my better moves.

“When I talked with them, I found out I had plenty of financing options. I chose a variable-rate loan. The kind where even if the rates change, my payments don't.

“Once I made that choice, the rest was simple. I got my boat—and the sun and the water—and I got a great feeling about NBD. I'm doing all my banking there, now. Once you've made the right move, why rock the boat?”

Today, you have more banking choices than ever. At NBD, we have to be better to earn your business. Make the right move, and make NBD your first choice for a boat loan—for all your financial needs.
